

Earlier this year The ECC once again joined Bernardo Attias and Fred Church, this time in New Orleans for the 2011

SCMS

Conference. The panel: "The DJ in Electronic Dance Music - Media Citizenship, Appropriation, and Cultural Hybridity"

Like their 2010 collaboration in Seattle, Bernardo and Fred gave talks which were remixed and augmented by The ECC using the VidiMasher 3000. That was followed by The ECC (TradeMark Gunderson and Christy Brand) giving a talk about recent challenges producing the new ECC All Rights Reserved album. The resulting Q&A with the audience was a rewarding and engaging 45 minutes -- just 10 minutes less than the talks that preceded it.

DJ Professor Ben \(Bernardo Attias\)

{audio}<http://evolution-control.com/images/ecc/mp3/live/scms/3%20>

Kumquat \(Fred Church\)

{audio}<http://evolution-control.com/images/ecc/mp3/live/scms/3%20>

The Evolution Control Committee \(TradeMark Gunderson and Christy Brand\)

Q&A

{audio}<http://evolution-control.com/images/ecc/mp3/live/scms/3%20>

{audio}<http://evolution-control.com/images/ecc/mp3/live/scms/3%20>

□