

The End Is Near! The Game Show returns to the Columbus Museum of Art for another absurd and wild night of audience competition in creativity, featuring The ECC's TradeMark G. making all the music. This one's Halloween themed with a cash bar, fun prizes, and plenty of spooky surprises.

Costumes encouraged! ☐

I probably shouldn't say this, but without giving too much away I'll warn you that this is your LAST chance. ☐

And that's all I'll say.
