

National Security Agency

NOTICE OF INSPECTION

To protect you and your fellow citizens, the National Security Agency (NSA) is required by the Supreme Court of the United States (ACLU vs. NSA, cases 06-2095, 06-2140) to disclose instances where surveillance on an American citizen has occurred. You and your activities were among those selected for surveillance.

During the surveillance, your activities may have been inspected by one or more of the following methods: wiretapping, phone call patterns, postal mail inspection, direct visual observation.

If the NSA agent assigned to your activities was unable to conduct adequate surveillance with the methods above, more invasive procedures may have been used. The NSA is not liable for damage to your home, vehicle, or personal property as a result of these necessary security procedures.

www.nsa.gov

If you would like to assist the NSA and save government resources, you may voluntarily provide detailed testimony of your personal activities. Please contact the NSA Personal Admissions Office:

Phone: 301-688-6524

Email: NSAPAO@nsa.gov

National Security Agency

NOTICE OF INSPECTION

To protect you and your fellow citizens, the National Security Agency (NSA) is required by the Supreme Court of the United States (ACLU vs. NSA, cases 06-2095, 06-2140) to disclose instances where surveillance on an American citizen has occurred. You and your activities were among those selected for surveillance.

During the surveillance, your activities may have been inspected by one or more of the following methods: wiretapping, phone call patterns, postal mail inspection, direct visual observation.

If the NSA agent assigned to your activities was unable to conduct adequate surveillance with the methods above, more invasive procedures may have been used. The NSA is not liable for damage to your home, vehicle, or personal property as a result of these necessary security procedures.

www.nsa.gov

If you would like to assist the NSA and save government resources, you may voluntarily provide detailed testimony of your personal activities. Please contact the NSA Personal Admissions Office:

Phone: 301-688-6524

Email: NSAPAO@nsa.gov
